

English-speaking YouTubers about Japan

Overview

This document lists famous English-speaking YouTubers who bring an insight into life in Japan. These YouTube channels are ideal for students interested in studying abroad, working, or learning more about Japanese culture and day-to-day living. These YouTubers create content captivating audiences with their unique take on Japanese traditions, food, travel experiences, and lifestyle nuances, offering an online gateway to understanding Japan through engaging and diverse storytelling.

Rachel and Jun: An American-Japanese couple that explores Japanese culture, travel, and living through their lens, highlighting the integration of their cross-cultural experiences.

<https://www.youtube.com/@RachelandJun>

Abroad in Japan (Chris Broad): A British expatriate whose channel is celebrated for its humorous and insightful content. His videos delve into various aspects of Japanese culture, food, language, and travel.

<https://www.youtube.com/@AbroadinJapan>

Sharmeleon (formerly Sharla in Japan): She showcases her life in Japan with travel vlogs, food reviews, and cultural insights, offering a tangible connection to the country's everyday life.

<https://www.youtube.com/@sharlainjapan>

Only in Japan (John Daub): Focuses on the unique nuances of Japanese culture and traditions, often bringing to light lesser-known facets of Japan, providing an in-depth cultural perspective.

<https://www.youtube.com/@onlyinjapan>

Paolo from TOKYO: Paolo crafts detailed videos about Tokyo's daily life, including apartment tours, food explorations, and insights into the Japanese work culture and lifestyle.

<https://www.youtube.com/@PaoloFromTokyo>

Tokyo Creative: This channel features a collective of YouTubers who create content about traveling, living, and eating in Japan.

<https://www.youtube.com/@TokyoCreativePlay>

Life Where I'm From (Greg Lam): Created by Greg Lam, this channel offers a perspective on Japanese life through almost documentary-style videos, often featuring his children and family.

<https://www.youtube.com/@LifeWhereImFrom>

Tokidoki Traveller (Emma): An Australian YouTuber sharing her journey living in Japan, including apartment tours and her day-to-day adventures, bridging her Australian roots with Japanese living..

<https://www.youtube.com/@TokidokiTraveller>

Each channel mentioned brings its unique flair, storytelling approach, and authentic life depiction, making them indispensable resources for anyone curious about the Japanese way of life.

Links

- Japanese Option webpage: <https://t-nagano.com/projects/JapaneseProgram/>
- Japanese Option Blog: <https://chrysanthemum.commonsgc.cuny.edu>
- Japanese Option Discord: Contact tnagano@lagcc.cuny.edu for the invitation link
- Tomonori Nagano, Faculty Advisor of the Japanese Option at LaGuardia
 - Office: B-234FF
 - Phone: 718-482-5484
 - Email: tnagano@lagcc.cuny.edu 